Please consider leaving Aruma a bequest via this Codicil.

Where a Percentage Bequest is intended

I give ____% of my estate to Aruma for its general purposes and I declare that the receipt of the Secretary or other proper officer shall be an absolute discharge to my trustee who shall not be bound to see the application of this gift.

Where a Residual Bequest is intended

I give the remainder of my estate to Aruma for its general purposes and I declare that the receipt of the Secretary or other proper officer shall be an absolute discharge to my trustee who shall not be bound to see the application of this gift.

Where a Fixed Amount Bequest is intended

I give $_____ to Aruma for its general purposes and I declare that the receipt of the Secretary or other proper officer shall be an absolute discharge to my trustee who shall not be bound to see the application of this gift.

When completed, keep this Codicil in a safe place along with the original copy of your Will and tell your executor where you have put it.

Do not staple or pin this Codicil to your current original Will. It will void that Will.

And remember, do not ask a beneficiary to witness your signature – it will disqualify them from receiving a gift in your Will. Your witnesses must be 18 year or over.
